

Health and Safety Policy

The Director of RGS Contracting 2020 Ltd is committed to providing and maintaining a safe and healthy work environment during activity in the workplace environment for its employees and team members.

RGS Contracting 2020 Ltd will:

- Actively work towards injury and incident prevention, and elimination where possible.
- Be proactive in identifying hazards in the workplace and take steps to control exposure to all hazards deemed significant.
- Provide training and supervision for everyone to effectively work in a safe manner.
- Encourage team member consultation and participation in health and safety matters.
- Comply with and regularly review all legislative requirements, operational practices and relevant Codes of Practice.
- Continue to strive for certification of Industry, ACC standards.
- Ensure workplace injuries, incidents and hazards are reported and recorded accurately.

All team members are expected to share this commitment:

Team members have a responsibility for the health and safety of themselves and their team mates working alongside them.

Each team member is expected to play a vital and responsible role by

- Complying with safe work practices and standard operating procedures, SOPs.
- Reporting all accidents, incidents, hazards, discomfort and unsafe conditions promptly and accurately.
- Actively participating in health and safety systems.

Director: Reuben Smillie

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'R Smillie', is positioned below the name of the Director.